Mr. Grace made four speeches at the meeting against the nomination of another Democratic ticket at this time, but his words availed naught. It was decided by a vote of 2236 to 536 to continue the committee appointed to confer with other anti-Tammany organizations about a third local ticket. Every man who voted to continue the committee favors a third ticket.

Sergt. Van's wound may prove fatal. Both he and Private King were removed to the Governor's Island Hospital. Miller was placed under arrest and locked up in the military prison on Governor's Island.

There are sixty men in Company A, on liberty Island, under command of Capt. A. M. Wetherill. They are a fine-looking lot of folders, and several of them have been rivals for the affections of a pretty German girl of mineteen employed by Nicholas Hartman, the Liberty Island restaurant keeper.

Sergt. Van and Private Miller have been the most ardent wooers of the girl, and it was aparant. That the Sergennt, a soldierty-looking strength every day. sergi. Van had a hight off, which he passed in this city, as did several other members of the company. It so happened that Nicholas Hartman's coquettsh domestic had also been en a visit to the city.

Miller watched the girl bid Sergt. Van goodby and start for her employer's quarters. The sight so inflamed his jealous passions that his hands trembled as he handled his gun. Involuntarity, it seemed, he raised the rifle and slipped in a cartridge.
